

About Tom Spellman:

An expert on fruit trees and backyard orchard culture, Tom Spellman is also an avid gardener and nurseryman. He brings more than twenty-five years' experience in Southern California nursery industry to his garden presentations. During his twenty years tenure with Laverne Nursery, he specialized in the production and sale of avocados, citrus, sub-tropical and deciduous fruit trees including landscape and orchard site consultation. Tom's memberships and affiliations include: International Plant Propagators Society, California Rare Fruit Growers and past board member of California Citrus Nurseryman's Society. Tom is also a past board member, treasurer and current member of the Nursery Growers' Association, as well as a California certified nurseryman. Tom is currently southwestern sales manager for Dave Wilson Nursery, servicing nurseries and growers in southern California, Arizona and southern Nevada. Dave Wilson Nursery is the largest grower of fruit trees in the USA and the licensed propagator of Zaiger Hybrids.
